FOREWORD

This book started as a hunt for the location of the graves of the veterans of all the wars buried in Thetford. Not finding any organized information in the town archives, I decided to make my own maps of all the cemeteries (to assist in putting out the flags for Memorial Day) and to copy all names and other information from the gravestones.

After the initial mapping and listing, done about twenty years ago, I have visited all the cemeteries four times to bring my lists and maps up to date. I have looked through all the birth and death records from the earliest ones to try to match names and dates. It has been a lot of work.

Here is a list of the cemeteries, numbered to agree with the map of the town, with the abbreviations as I have used them throughout the book and with the name or names they have been called and their locations:

- 1 – PM Post Mills, Pleasant Valley - on 113 near the church
- 2 – SB Swanee Bean - 200 to 300 feet off TR 22
- 3 – NT North Thetford, Pleasant Ridge, North Thetford Women's Cemetery - off US 5
- 4 – TC old Thetford Center old cemetery - on TR 29
- 5 – TC new Thetford Center new cemetery - Evergreen Rest - behind town hall
- 6 – ET East Thetford - on US 5 near Child's Pond
- 7 – RM Rices Mills, Jackman Cemetery - TR 26 and 132 in a field
- 8 – Follett under lilacs in front yard of house opposite State Park
- 9 – Glebe Chamberlin child off TR 4 near Dwinells
- 10 – J Judd, Swift Cemetery, Gove Hill Cemetery - TR 25 near junction with TR 8
- 11 – Ellis Ellis Cemetery, Hillside Cemetery - TR 57 near Durkees
- 12 – Knox in back field near Godfreys off TR 40
- 13 – K Kinney Cemetery - in Stevens District on TR 59 near McAllisters

A map of the town with these locations shown is included.

There are, undoubtedly, many mistakes in this list. I apologize for names left out and wrong dates. Any suggestions or information to make the list more complete (through December, 1976) will be welcomed.

Appreciation is extended to Charles Latham for drawing neat maps from my cruder ones and for the cover, and to all who gave me the incentive to finish this work.
